

ALLELUIA

If then you were raised with Christ,
seek what is above,
where Christ is seated
at the right hand of God.
Think of what is above,
not of what is on earth.
For you have died, and your life
is hidden with Christ in God.
When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Easter Sunday, The Resurrection of the Lord

Easter Sunday Reflection

You've no doubt heard someone say to you "I've got to get something off of my chest." Once he or she has finished, the person may have even said that he or she felt "a weight lifted from their shoulders." When the heart is opened and the truth is confessed, what an accurate description these sayings can be! The troubles, worries and sins we carry in our heart must be released, no matter how large the stone that blocks our way.

Perhaps we believe that the stone of Jesus' tomb was moved to let him rise as he had said he would. Wouldn't it be a truer thought that the stone was moved for others to see into the tomb? The fulfilled promise of Jesus' Resurrection was more than another physical miracle performed; it was the triumph of life over death itself, a message entrusted to every disciple from then on to proclaim to the world.

On this Easter Sunday, we are reminded that those who first rushed to the tomb found it empty; no physical body of Jesus, no flesh, yet it was this day that fulfilled the promise of the Word made flesh. For from that time on, we come together to proclaim our belief in the resurrection of the flesh and the life of the world to come (CCC 1015). Remove the stone from your heart, and believe in the redeeming love of Jesus Christ.

Happy Easter!!

During this Holy Season we celebrate the Resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ—a celebration that reminds us that life never ends.

Just think, from the moment of conception - life begins and will continue for all time. Jesus teaches that if we live a life according to the Father's commands and live in the knowledge of His love, we shall see the eternal glory promised to the faithful. We celebrate the great gift of life and the Father's love; however, through the example of Christ, we must realize that there will also be times of suffering. We celebrate the joy of Easter only after the realization and experience of Good Friday. Throughout all time God reminds us that He is with us in our suffering. His love surrounds us at all times and he guides us with His love. We not only celebrate the great gift of life but the reality that life is the gift without end. We live in this world focused on living as faithful members of God's family knowing that it is a beginning of all time in God's presence.

Happy Easter! May your life continue in the celebration and knowledge of God's full love and the gift of endless life in His presence.

Fr. Mark
